It was indeed a moment of pride for us at KOSHISH FOUNDATION for the benevolent step taken by Eshan College of Engineering with their team of volunteers (Faculty and students) to conduct sessions for the deprived section of society targeting the children of slums and clusters to impart primary educational skills to them. A team from Eshan College of Engineering really deserves applause and appreciation for the humanitarian step taken and setting an example for others to get inspired.

Letter of Appreciation

Dear,

I just wanted to say thanks for your help to our NGO "RIWAAZ". Your Institution Eshan College of Engineering played an important role in spreading awareness among the society related to "Adults with physical disabilities".

The time and effort which you have put in this activity truly couldn't have been done without your sincere participation.

Thanks again!

Regards,

Madhu Saxena

Letter of Appreciation

Dear,

I want to thank you for the amazing work you did with our NGO "RIWAAZ" yesterday.

The awareness of "Well being of persons with physical disabilities", your institution helped our NGO as professional and efficient which our prospective population values just as much as we do! I've already received lots of emails appreciating your work.

Thanks again for all your help and for motivating everyone to get the job done.

Letter of Appreciation

Dear,

On behalf of our NGO RIWAAZ, I want to thank your group for their wonderful presentation on "The rights of transgender community". Everybody was very happy with your factual details. People got lot of information and inspiration from your Institution. You have done a wonderful job.

I hope you will participate every year with more and more enthusiasm and spread it among others. Well done and keep it up.

All the best for your coming years.
