Day-06: - 15-10-2022 (Saturday)

10:00 am – 04:00 pm

On 15 Oct 2022 Students of Eshan college of Engineering, Farah had visited Keetham lake, Bear Century, Surkuti and Gurudwara located at Agra. Keetham lake or Sur Sarovar spread in around 100 acres. Migratory Birds from different states of the country and foreign lands including China, Bhutan, Siberia, Russia visit Keetham lake. Students had asked questions to the officers of Keetham and got knowledge about different birds.

Sur Sarovar, often referred to as Keetham Lake, is a picturesque lake off the Agra-Delhi route (NH 2). The Agra Bear Rescue Facility, a facility for saving Sloth bears dedicated to rehabilitate previously captured "dancing bears," is located next to it. Since 2020, the lake has been recognized as a Ramsar site that is protected.

Students had also visited Guru ka Tal. Guru ka Tal is one of the most important pilgrimage destinations for the Sikhs. It is located in close proximity to Sikandra (famous for Akbar's tomb) and is associated with an important episode in the history of Sikhism. This Gurudwara was built in the memory of Guru Teg Bahadur Ji and is visited by lakhs of devotees every year to pay respects and seek blessings. Students had been given a lecture in Gurudwara. They learnt a lot there. They enjoyed

TWO WEEK AWARENESS WORKSHOP ON HUMAN VALUES

Newly admitted students in various courses of different streams were required to be given a brief outlay of what are human values in present Indian society's context. Guidelines from different regulatory and affiliating bodies had already made it compulsory to teach "Universal Human Values and Professional Ethics" as a part of student's curriculum. An initiative was taken at the college level to conduct a two week workshop on human values for the newly admitted students following induction programme.

Following were the key resource persons for the workshop:

1. Dr. S.K. Gautam (Certified Human Values Instructor)
2. Shri Manish Kumar (Certified Human Values Instructor)
3. Shri Vinay Gupta (Certified Human Values Instructor)

Dr. S.K. Gautam delivered the content to students emphasizing on how important and valuable it is to exhibit human traits while executing their professional role in the society. Dr. Gautam shared his experience with the students while giving the deliverables related to Human Values. Students were observed to be showing very keen interest in all the sessions conducted by Dr. Gautam quoted many examples and situations via multimedia tools to present his idea over the topic of human values.

Shri Manish Kumar gave critical analogies so that students may have a better understanding of how to be sensitive enough while being a part of situation which requires being having very delicate reaction. Human values as explained by Shri Manish Kumar is all about being happy and making others happy.

Shri Vinay Gupta was very sharp enough to explain the professional needs of being ethical as a technocrat. He discussed about the ethical values which any person should be imbibed with so as to have a perfect blend of both human values and professional ethics.

Pro(Dr.) Sanjeev Sharma, an eminent mathematician and ex director of IET khandari, Agra was present to motivate and encourage new students. He explained that modern technology would be unthinkable without mathematics. mathematics contribute in engineering design, optimisation, control theory, machine learning, artificial intelligence and other areas. He also said that attitude is more important than skills so we have always positive attitude.

In last session activity team organised Treasure hunt game it is the game in which each person or team attempts to be first in finding something that has been hidden using written direction or clues. student enjoyed lots in this activity. Ms Akriti Mittal(Head Activity team) and all other team members manage this activity very well.

Day#7

Education is a device which manifests the perfection of students that is already latent in their mind and heart. It brings light, truth and immortality in their life. They show perfection in their potentialities and capacities when they get proper education. Education gives them what they desire to acquire but the main thing is that they should lead a disciplined life otherwise they will not be able to get success in their endeavors.

It was exhorted by Mr. Dauji Agarwal, Faculty and Trainer of Eshan College of Engineering, Farah, Mathura on behalf of Training Department during the 10 days' Induction Program conducted by the college for the newly admitted 1st year students. He further motivated the students to work hard and face the challenges of life. He said that their failures are nothing but the stepping stones for their success yet to be gained by them. He asked the students to make a proper future plan and work accordingly. He also asked the students to prepare a full 24 hours' rotation for their proper study. He inspired the students not to lose their heart at the time of unsuccessfulness. Instead they should gather their courage and recall their past successes and thus, start afresh. They should develop their efficiency and perfection and get success in their life. So many students put their questions to pacify their curiosity and Mr. Agarwal quenched their thirst of knowledge.

After that Director of Institute Dr. Pankaj Sharma gave presentation on Cryptography. He explained that Cryptography is the study of secure communications techniques that allow only the sender and intended recipient of a message to view its contents. ... Here, data is encrypted using a secret key, and then both the encoded message and secret key are sent to the recipient for decryption. It was really very informative session.

In last session Er.Charu Sharma, faculty of EE Deptt also arranged Tambola game. Most of the students play this game first time. It was a great experience as students enjoyed very much. Gifts were also distributed for completing rows, corners, lucky numbers and full house.

Day #8

Different indoor game were arranged for students on day eight. Students were very delighted to participate in these activities. After that important topics of Human values like Activates of self Prosperity Relationship in family -Justice Relationship in family -Justice Respect, Self Confidence were discussed by experts. The main learning were : To a lot of people, prosperity means wealth. Well, actually that's not true. It means three things: wealth, health and happiness. So that means, if prosperity means three things, "wealth, health and happiness," you need to have something happening for all three of these things for you to become prosperous.

Day#9

Day started with the presentation of Shiva Vashishtha, Senior Manager and Data Science Trainer at Jobaaj.com. He gave informative presentation on Digitalization and other relevant subjects.

Students of all courses of 1st year visited Gurudwara Guru ka Taal to lighten up the spiritual feeling among themselves so as to add upon their traditional values. students felt excited upon visiting and benefiting through to darshan of Guru Granth Sahib at Guru ka Taal and had Prasad as well there.

In continuation of the visit to gurdwara students had a leisure time in sight scene of Sur sarovar pakshi vihar, keetham. Students visited to Surkuti, a spiritual place of sant shree Surdas. Students had fun and frolic at the keetham lake through sight seen.

Day#10

Valedictory function started with the feedback of the students about the program. Students gave a very encouraging feedback about the program which rays the spirits of organisers to a different level. Speech by managing trustee Mrs Manjari Agarwal was followed by speech of chairman, governing council Shri Sanjay Agarwal ji. He addressed the the students and complete academic fraternity about the five pillars of Eshan campus as Academic, Training, Placement Extra curricular activities and Students service. Havan ceremony took place to Mark the beginning of academic session for first year students.

There was main course lunch for each and everyone present during the program. Vote of thanks was delivered by the organising committee members and mentor to all who contributed to the success of induction program.

Day#11

Cricket, Volleyball and other sports were arranged for students on day eight. Students were very delighted to participate in these sports . After that important topics of Human values like Relationship vs Transaction, Competition and Cooperation, Competition and Excellence, Competition and Excellence, Interaction and Ragging, Four Orders of Nature. A key element in understanding cooperation/competition is the type of goal interdependence found between the involved parties. Parties goals' may be negatively interdependent--one party's success correlating with the other's failure. Such situations tend to yield competitive relationships with a win-lose orientation. It is important to note that this consciousness or faculty of assuming is not in the body. The body belongs to the plant/bio order, and is physico-chemical in nature. It just responds to physico-chemical inputs. Human (knowledge) order The activities in human body are similar to that in the animal body, and we have seen this in detail as: composition/ decomposition and respiration. When it comes to consciousness or 'I', however, the human displays more than just an ability to 'select' or make choices as animals do.

Thus, in human beings, 'I' has the acitvities of desiring, thinking, and selecting/tasting, with a possibility or need for understanding and realization. Only humans have this need to know and that is why it is called gyana avastha – the kowledge order.
